

Dear colleague,

the RIMS Board is proud to announce that the programme of the RIMS' Annual Conference is almost final! You are very welcome to join us digitally for 2 days of science and networking, on Friday November 26 and Saturday November 27.

Don't miss this special edition of the Conference, where we will celebrate the 30 years of RIMS! May we kindly remind you of the following upcoming deadlines:

- September 1, 2021: Abstract submission deadline
- September 22, 2021: Notification regarding acceptance/non-acceptance
- September 28, 2021: Early bird deadline

PROGRAMME & SPEAKERS

Join us virtually for the 26th Annual RIMS Conference "Transforming Rehabilitation in MS through Collective Learning: Maximising Stakeholder Engagement", for an exciting programme focusing on the following 3 areas:

- Neuro-biological Effect of Rehabilitation
- Digital Health
- Impact of COVID-19 on MS care

The Conference programme will contain interesting lectures, panel discussions, abstract presentations and poster express sessions. Furthermore, participants have the possibility to attend one of the Special Interest Group meetings focused on:

- Patient Autonomy
- Communication & Swallowing
- Psychology & Neuropsychology
- Occupation
- Mobility
- Bladder, Bowel & Sexuality.

More details are available on the website www.rims-annualconference.org/Digital2021

EARLY BIRD

Register before September 28 and benefit from the early bird fee! Registration should be done online via the registration tool available on the website. RIMS members can register at a reduced rate.

Admittance to a SIG meeting is complimentary to all Conference Delegates, but pre-registration is mandatory.
